Annual report of the Internal Committee:

The internal committee was established on 25th February in Art's, Commerce and Science College, Nandgaon. The committee consists of 5 women and 3 men. All the members of the committee created an atmosphere of trust and security among the female staff as well as the students, he also clarified that the committee is committed to prevent future atrocities against female students and female staff. Also, through the Zoom meeting, the students from all classes discussed and explained the importance of this committee to them. Three complaint boxes have been set up in college. The committee members come together and open the complaint box every fortnight to verify the complaint. The entire college campus has a strong security wall and 35 CCTV cameras have been installed in the college premises. There are separate toilets for female students and female staff of the college. There is also a separate student room for female students and a vending machine has been installed in that room. The internal committee of the college is diligently carrying out its work with vigilance.
